

This year's special online poetry jam is open to all area students and community members. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, there will not be an awards ceremony or 'physical' poetry jam but entries will be included* in a published anthology, entitled "Poems of Hope-Spring 2020" that will be available for purchase. Entries must be received by May 31, 2020 and should align with this year's special theme "Poems of Hope." All entries must be original work and we ask participants to submit an accompanying photograph or artwork to be used alongside their poem in the publication. Entrants under 18 years of age, must have parent's consent for their work to be published online and in the anthology. (See form below.)

- 👉 All area students (public, private or home-schooled) and community members may enter.
- 👉 One (1) poem per person may be submitted. Entry must be accompanied by the completed entry form below.
- 👉 All poems must be original work by the author.
- 👉 Please include a photo or artwork to accompany your poem in publication.
- 👉 Entries will be not be judged but proper spelling and grammar will be taken into consideration for publication.
- 👉 *Any entry containing profanity, vulgarity or offensive material will be disqualified for publication. TCAAC decisions are final.
